The Library currently has two study rooms, the Carnegie Room, located at the south entrance to the Library and the Quiet Study Room, located beside the Tallman Program Room.

1. The Quiet Study Room is available on a drop-in basis and is not for the exclusive use of an individual. If only one person is using the room, another person may also use the room at the same time. There is a limit of 2 hours use. Students wishing to hold study groups in either the Quiet Study Room or the Tallman Program Room must receive approval from Library staff.
2. Tutoring by volunteers is allowed in the Library, but a fee will be charged those tutors who receive compensation for their services. Tutors will be charged $10 per hour (residents) and $15.00 per hour (non-residents).
3. The study room near the south entrance is available for booking. The terms and conditions and rental rates are outlined in the NGPL Facility Rental Rates and Terms and Conditions.
